LECTURE OF DR. CHOULES.—We have been requested to call public attention to the special notice of a Lecture to be delivered this evening, by Dr. Choules, of Newport, R. I., before the Library Association.

Dr. C. has just arrived from Savannah, where he delivered a course of Lectures—by special invitation—before the Georgia Historical Society, to large and appreciative audiences. His manner is said to be peculiarly striking, and his lectures highly agreeable and instructive.

We hope this effort of the Association to gratify the intellectual taste, will be rewarded by a respectable, if not large, attendance.—Augusta Sentinel.

☞ The Know Nothings of the Massachusetts House of Representatives have voted to disfranchise all foreign born citizens who have not resided in this country for twenty-one years. A resident in this country of half that length of time generally qualifies them to act with more common sense in all matters, than their persecutors of Massachusetts can ever hope to attain to, though they lived to the age of Methuselah.—Hartford Times.

☞ Under the new law, there were, up to day, ninety-seven unpaid letters remaining in the Albany Post Office—three directed to places abroad, and ninety-four to places in the United States. A public spirited and benevolent neighbor happening in the Post Office, inquired the amount of postage due on the whole lot, and finding it to be $2,34, paid it and sent them on their destined way—a piece of kindness that will benefit many people without their knowing who they are indebted to.—Alb. Jour.

☞ If the current Know-Nothingism of the day flatters itself that it is the embodiment of that American sentiment, which may sweep all before it at the next Presidential election it is very much in error. Know-Nothingism is already tottering to its fall, and its adherents are already beginning to run from it with the instinct of rats, lest they should be buried, Palestine-like, beneath its collapsing and tumbling arches, pillars, pilasters and cornices.

—o—

The Rev. Dr. Sprague, of Albany, has recieved a present of one of the chairs in possession of Napoleon 1st at St. Helena. I was sent him by Dr. Bertram, a resident of St. Helena.

We could not feel that we had fulfilled the duty of a public journal should we allow the developments of the "Nunnery Investigation" at Boston to pass without remark; and yet the subject is one which we approach unwillingly and with shame. We shrink from acknowledging, even to ourselves, that the Legislature of a State, occupying the moral and intellectual position which Massachusetts has so long occupied in this Union, could have found among its members a committee which would discharge a delicate duty in a manner so utterly indelicate, not to say indecent and outrageous. We are loth to own in the face of the world, that in a body of men which the world has the right to assume were selected on account of their peculiar fitness to represent the intelligence, the moral worth, and the culture, of one of the oldest, most highly cultivated communities in the country, there were found nearly a score who could avail themselves of a little brief authority to insult a feeble household of secluded women, to outrage their religious sentiment and even to rudely break down, or rather to meanly sneak through the barriers which civilized christianity has drawn around their sex. But the admission must be made, reluctant as we may be to make it; else we may justly be held responsible for sins from which we do not absolve ourselves. The London Times has enough to do to look after England now, but were it not so what a scathing onslaught would there be on this development of the proprieties of life as they are practiced by legislators in the Modern Athens of the Model Republic.

The right to appoint a Committee for such examinations as that which occupied this Committee is, perhaps, not to be denied; but it is a right which exists only on account of the possibility that measures so nearly inquisitorial in their character may be needed to protect the State against great abuses and insidious danger. But this possibility is extremely remote, and the notion that our political or our social institutions are endangered by the machinations of the Church of Rome, which has been foisted on the American movement is sheerly chimerical. No such danger, no shadow of such danger exists. While the press is free, while the schoolmaster treads closely on the heels of the pioneer, while the spirit of our laws is that which animated the settlers of Plymouth Bay and Jamestown, there need be no fear that the occupant of the chair which totters up on the seven hills will attain any power in this country at all dangerous to its liberty or its prosperity.

The committee whose proceedings have just been investigated in Boston should never have been appointed; for although its authority was general, it is well known that its purpose was particular, and that it was directed especially, if not solely, at this little household of quiet, unoffending females, who had, according to the dictates of their consciences, devoted themselves to an ascetic religious life, and were endeavoring to work out their own salvation after their own way. If it were absolutely necessary for the safety of the great State of Massachusetts, that these poor women should be 'examinationed,' the unpleasant duty should have been awarded to the smallest committee that could discharge it satisfactorily, and it should have been composed of gentlemen eminent at once for discretion and courtesy. But here we have a dozen committee men, not satisfied with their numbers, and perhaps quailing at the thought of meeting half their number of the other sex under such very peculiar circumstances, soliciting friends to join them and keep them in countenance, stumbling in upon those ladies at their household duties, at their devotions, and in their sick beds, snooping about opening closet doors, handling rosaries, nosing around under pillows and bed curtains as never old women—in petticoats—nosed and snouped before, and making themselves generally ridiculous and disgusting to those who were undergoing their visitation.

There has been an attempt made in one or two quarters to apologise for this sneaking committee, to palliate their offences against decency, and to justify the general course of their proceedings. The task is not only futile but most impolitic. It would be far wiser to endeavor to aggravate their conduct into the dignity of an intentional, high handed insult. Then there might be two sides to the question raised; now there is but one with all who are not lost to the decencies of civilized life and the dignity of manhood, not to say the instincts of gentlemen. The evidence given by some of the members of the committee and those who accompanied them, is appealed to by the apologists; but at the best it is but negative evidence and amounts to little; and that little dwindles to nothing when the halting shame faced air which blushes even through the types of the report is considered as it must be, in judging the value of the testimony.

The truth is that the affair from beginning to end is contemptible. We are apt to complain that place, and authority, and position, when derived from the true source of power, the people, recieves too little consideration now-a-days,—that we are losing that veneration which is undoubtedly an element of a healthy tone of mind; but if those who sit in our high places will degrade themselves openly before the world, as they have been so ready to do of late, how can we but fail to lose the faculty which we are not called upon to use. The Investigation of this committee has been ridiculous. When it had not to do with prying into "buck baskets and foul linen" it concerned itself about turkies, and oyster sauce, and champagne, and the board bills of nameless ladies. If a blunder be worse than a crime—and in a certain sense and an important sense it is worse—then the Legislature of Massachusetts is in a perilous state; for it has blundered ridiculously and has made its shame patent to the world.—Cour. & Enq.

Applications Under the New Bounty Land Act.—Under the bounty land act of March 3, 1855, the first claim was presented to the Pension Office about the 10th ultimo, and up to this date eighty one thousand seven hundred applications have been received. About twenty thousand cases have been enveloped, numbered, and briefed, and yesterday the office has commenced the examination of claims under this law. They purpose having at least ten thousand ready for issue when the plates are furnished. Although the forms and instructions issued by Commissioner Waldo are plain, explicit, and easily understood, of the first thirty cases examined only one was in accordance with the requirements of the law, and the instructions of the office.

The Washington Star, in regard to the relations existing between Spain and the Government of the United States, says: So they have sent Com. McCauley down civilly to notify Concha, that his present course with reference to Americans and American vessels, if perservered in much insure war, and to urge on him that if he values peace with the United States, he must cease such practices as must be resisted by force of arms by this Government, at all hazard.—And further to assure him, that he may dismiss all fears of the successful departure of filibustering expeditions so long as Franklin Pierce remains in the Presidency. We take it for granted further, that Commodore McCauley has orders after having delivered the message, the substance of which we mention above, to permit no more firing of shot over and around American vessels pursuing lawful commerce on the high seas—in the Gulf."

MISS NIGHTINGALE ASTONISHES THE FOGIES.—Miss Nightingale is the real hero of the present war. Lately a transport of sick arrived at Secutari. In the hospital, where no bedding could be provided for them, they were laid on the wooden floor of the corridor. Miss Nightingale immediately sent to the surveyor for beds and mattresses, but got the answer that no stores could be delivered by him unless he got a regular order signed by the two respective officers and physicans of the hospital. Miss Nightingale sent him word again that she must have the bedding immediately, but promised that the necessary formalities should be complied with as soon as the officers and physicians should return and find time for writing. Meeting with a second refusal, she ordered some twenty convalescents to follow her, went straight to the store-house, had its doors forced open, and carried away the necessary articles. The storekeper stood aghast at such unceremonious infraction of his authority and of all official routine, but the lady said coolly: "Report to head-quarters that Miss Nightingale has forced open the door and carried away what was wanted for the protection of the life of her Majesty's sick soldiers on her own responsibility." England is, of course, delighted at such independent and manly conduct, though the Ministry cannot openly encourage such acts of insubordination.

JUVENILE SIMPLICITY.—A friend says the following story is a fact. Two boys of tender years, who went by the name of Tom and Jack, became members of a district school in a certain New England town.—On making their appearance, the teacher called them up before the assembled school, and proceeded to make certain interrogatories concerning their names, and ages, &c.

"Well, my fine lad," said the teacher to the first one, "what is your name?"

"Tom," said the teacher, "that does not sound well. Remember and always speak the full name. You should have said Thomas."

"Now my son," turning to the other boy, whose expectant face suddenly lighted up with the satisfaction of a newly discovered idea, "now, then, will you tell me what your name is?"

"Jack-ass!" replied the lad in a tone of confident decision.

The teacher was taken with a sudden fit of coughing and merely motioned the boys to their seats.

STATUE OF JUDGE STORY.—Letters from Florence state that the full length marble statue of the late Judge Story, intended for Mount Auburn, has been shipped to this country.

BLIGHTED HOPES.

BY JENNY,

N. Y.

Frail was my bark and all too soon
I launched upon life's ebbing sea;
But still more frail the hopes that sprung,
Luring me on to destiny.

Youth freighted her with choicest flowers,
Ne'er dreaming time could ever blight
One tiny bud—for faith had promised
To gild her with love's cheering light

But tempests tossed my little bark
And storm clouds gathered, darkened near;
While hope grew pale, as wave on wave,
Hurled her onward to despair.

Each tiny leaf and promised flower,
Each nestling bud born of an hour,
Each vision bright I've felt depart,
While grief coils sadly round my heart.

The heart, the heart, Oh, pent-up tomb,
Where withered hopes, where youth find room,
Embalmed by many silent tears,
Lost fragments of departed years.

DELICATE MUNIFICENCE. On Sunday last, among the contributions at the Church of the Holy Communion to the funds of St. Luke's Hospital was a roll of five one thousand dollar bills. They were dropped so quietly into the plate that not even the gentleman who received them knew from whom they came.—Courier, N. Y.

The reason the committee did not report the evidence in the Hiss case was an apprehension that it would render them liable to prosecution for "indecent exposure."—[Boston Post.

LET US REASON TOGETHER.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

WHY ARE WE SICK?

It has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the WEAK, the NERVOUS, the DELICATE, and the INFIRM, of all climes, ages, sexes, and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of his medicines in the United States, and offers them to a free and enlightened people as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.

THESE PILLS PURIFY THE BLOOD.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver the kidneys, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world, that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthy tone to these organs, however much deranged, and when all others means have failed.

GENERAL DEBILITY. ILL HEALTH.

Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

No Female, young or old, should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint; consequently no family should be without it.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Asthma | Debility | Liver Complaints |
| Bowel Complaints | Fever and Ague | Lowness of spirits |

HORACE WATERS,
No. 333 Broadway, New York, opposite to the Combination!
MUSIC AT GREATLY REDUCED RATES.

Notwithstanding the Combination of Music Dealers to keep up the prices of non-copyright music against the interests of Native Composers, and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making immense sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and support in his opposition to the Great Monopoly, and in his efforts to aid Native Talent and adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European Music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a great Reduction in the Prices of Pianos, Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds. Superior toned 6 1-2 Octave Pianos for $175, $200, and $225, inferior of no good quality and instruments as strong and as durable as those which cost $500. They have no offer of a loan of $500 for that purpose, provided they can realise a like amount in any other way, when together, will enable them to raise and cover the building, for which the expect to complete without about $ as rapidly as their means will allow.

SOAP! SOAP!!

THE subscriber is now prepared to furnish the highly celebrated American Cream, American Laundry, American Manufacturers' Soap, and Cream Soap preparation. These soaps are presented to the public with the fullest confidence in their superiority and utility. A fair trial according to the directions given below, cannot fail to be entirely satisfactory; and an argument more conclusive than pages of certificates and recommendations. A fair trial is all I ask. These soaps do the work of the old Lask. These soaps do the work of the old Laundry in the best manner in cold water, either hard or soft, or salt, dispensing entirely with hard or soft, or salt, dispensing entirely with hard or soft, or salt, dispensing entirely with boiling, pounding, washing machines, &c., without injury to the most delicate fabric. In cold weather, health may render it advisable to take the chill off the water.

The tendency of these soaps is to soften the clothes and loosen the hold of the dirt, without injury.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—White Clothes—Rub the soap freely on all soiled spots, make a strong suds in water, sufficient to cover, soak a few hours, or all night if convenient, when with a common hard rubbing and thorough rinsing, they will be perfectly clean and beautifully bleached.

Calicoes and other colored articles, wash without soaking and rinse.

Woolens—Wash in warm suds (to prevent shrinking) and rinse.

Merinoes, Silk - Velvets, Silks, Ribbons, &c. Wash in strong suds and rinse.

To take Lamp Oil, Wheel Grease, Grease Spots, &c. out of Carpets, Table Covers, and Clothing, rub the soap on freely, soak some time in strong suds, rub out and rinse. Ink spots and stains, use full strength, soak, and wash in hot water.

Gilding and Mahogany.—Wash in weak suds, rub with silk cloth and rinse. Paint, wash in strong suds.

For all other purposes, use as you do the common bar-soaps, and you will be compelled to admit that it surpasses all other soaps. Manufactured and for sale wholesale and retail, by

C. G. HANDY, Depot 220 Thames-st.

FOR NEURALGIA AND RHEUMATISM.

DOCT. TRIPP,

WHO has devoted many years to the treatment of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, has succeeded in discovering a remedy, which in the most severe as well as milder cases has proved an infallible remedy, and has fully met the approbation of eminent medical men, many of whose testimony he has in his possession.

The monsters Rheumatism and Neuralgia, so prolific of pain and misery, when invincible attacks upon the head, face, shoulders, back, loins, knees, feet, hands, &c., producing palpitation, fainting, distortion and deformity, have from all ages baffled the skill of eminent practitioners, but find it less possible at any time to correct the vitiated state of the fluids by any outward application, such as pain killers, ointments, liniments, &c., but in all cases where a cure has been performed, it has been done with alkaline antidotes used internally; all others giving but partial relief.

DOCTOR TRIPP has no remedy that cures all ills that flesh is heir to, but for the above complaints he feels safe in saying that within the last four years he has not known a single case where it has not produced and a perm nent cure. Whoever uses it for acute, chronic, inflammatory or mercurial rheumatism or Neuralgia in the part of the system, in any degree of severity, or for pains of cancers or head-ache, and does not get immediate relief, may return the medicine at his expense, and the money will be refunded.

This remedy may be obtained of Dr. Tripp, No. 139 Union street, New Bedford, Mass., or will be sent to any part of the country by express.

All orders should be addressed to Dr. T., box 421, New Bedford.

N. B.—As heretofore, it will be furnished only to all medical practitioners for their own use, gratuitously. s29—1y
